Writing

I'd like to share my thought with the magazine about spectacular movie "Dorian Grey", that I watched recently and it gave strong and controversial emotions in the end of the movie. The movie was made in 2000s, according to the book of famous writer.

The main characters are Dorian Grey and Lord Henry. Dorian is an innocent and rich young man, who arrived to the London. Most of women pay attention on him because of his beauty. Lord Henry is middle-aged man, who almost got old, who is Dorian's pal and then enemy during the movie. He shows Dorian an forbidden community of London. The movie surprised me, because it has a lot of differences with the original book, some characters' stories are completely different, but it's nice. It shows personal understanding from an author of movie. I didn't like that movie contains topics about Dorian's pharmacy usage ~~and so~~, because such information wasn't in a book. ~~It can run with to watch a movie to future viewers.~~

Over all, I like that film, it ~~very~~ shows how bad person can become if he gets an absolute freedom in his actions.
