Writing

The Kid (1921)

It is great silent movie. It was made by famous actor, director and composer Charlie Chaplin. There are many dramatic and humorous scenes, which would be actual and interesting for all times. It is like immortal classic of cinematograph. That is why I like it so much. Everybody can take pleasure from watching it, from young boy to his old grandfather.

Plot is modern with many twists and dramatic intrigues. Main character (who is played by Charlie) is just a poor American guy. He accidentally finds a kid, and becomes his "father." He is giving name to the child - John. Young John becomes street worker, like his stepfather. John is not educated, but he has kind and lovely soul. When he got ill, doctor want to take him to orphan asylum. But John wanted to stay with his father.

Plot has also many twists, but I let you to view it yourselves. Because the most impressing (and surprising) in movie, that cast can make you feel any emotion without words.
